Berlin, May 15, N. S.

IN the Night between the 12th and 13th Inſtant, an Expreſs arrived from M. Brandt, his Pruſſian Majeſty's Miniſter at the Muſcovite Camp before Dantzick, who brings an Account, that on the 9th in the Evening, Count Munich cauſed the Fortifications on the Hills called Stoltzenberg and Biſhopsberg, which command the Town, to be ſtormed by a very great Detachment of the Ruſſian Army, hoping to be able to carry thoſe Works Sword in Hand; that the Action laſted from Ten at Night till Three in the Morning, when the Ruſſians were forced to retire, leaving 3000 Men dead on the Spot, amongſt whom were a great many Officers of Rank and Diſtinction. On Thurſday laſt the Court removed from Potzdam to this Town. This Morning the Regiments which come hither every Year in order to paſs in Review before his Majeſty, marched into Town, and next Monday is fixed for the General Review. The 10000 Pruſſians ſet out on the 10th Inſtant from Hall and Magdebourg on their March towards the Rhine.

Hambourg, May 18, N. S. Yeſterday Morning the King of Denmark reviewed his Troops incamped in this Neighbourhood, which made a very good Appearance, and To-morrow they will break up and march to the Waterſide, in order to be imbarked in a great Number of Veſſels, which are to tranſport them croſs the Elbe, from Blankeneſe to the Krantz, on the oppoſite Side, ſituated in the Dutchy of Bremen. It is generally believee that the Court of Denmark will remain at Altena all this Week and Part of the next, and then proceed to Oldenburg; and in the Whitſun-Holidays will go into Sleſwick, and ſtay there a Month or ſix Weeks.

Hague, May 21, N. S. The laſt Letters from the Imperial Army are of the 14th, at which Time Prince Eugene remain'd encamped at Narbinn, and the French Army was at Buchſal, waiting for the Junction of the Forces under the Command of M. Belliſle that were lately on the Moſelle. It is ſaid that the Ten thouſand Pruſſians were march'd to join Prince Eugene, but it was not known how far they were advanced. The laſt Letters from Italy of the 9th ſay, that the French Army is incamped behind the Lenzo and the Oglio, by which means they cover the Milaneſe; but that the Parmeſan is expoſed to the Excurſions of the Germans who are at Luzara, and as ſoon as Count Mercy ſhall be ſufficiently furniſhed with ſome Proviſions he wanted, it is ſaid he will march directly againſt the Enemy, and endeavour to bring them to Action; ſo that the News of a Battle is daily expected from thoſe Parts. The States had an Account laſt Night from M. de Blyſwyk, their Miniſter at Dantzick, of the 10th Inſtant, that the Muſcovites having the Night before attacked the Works of the riſing Ground before the Town called the Hagelberg, with Three thouſand Men, and Ladders, on a Deſign to ſcale the ſame, were not only beat back, but moſt of them cut in Pieces.

Advertiſements.

WHereas Henry Simms, a Youth of about 12 or 13 Years of Age, was deluded or treacherouſly taken away from his Friends about ſix Weeks ſince, being guilty of no Crimes; the ſaid Henry Simms is a pale-fac'd thin Boy, having his own brown Hair, but mean in Apparel, with the Scar of a Burn on his Breaſt, a very few Pits of the Small Pox ſcarcely to be diſcern'd; when he was taken away he had on neither Hat nor Coat. It is thought he was convey'd away out of Malice, being more beloved than others. He was brought up by his Grandmother, a Woman between Three and Fourſcore Years of Age, who undergoes the utmoſt Grief for the Loſs of him. The poor old Creature ſeems rather to chuſe Death than to live in this Diſtraction of Mind. It would be a Satisfaction to her to hear of him, and if he be willing to go to Sea, ſhe will make Proviſion for him on that Account; but let him ſend to her of his own Hand writing, or ſome Token, that ſhe may be ſatisfied it came from him. Now her humble Requeſt to all Officers of Ships that go into Foreign Parts, is, for God's Sake, to make a ſtrict Enquiry after him, and bring him, and it would be the greateſt Act of Charity that ever they did. Whoever hears of the ſaid Henry Simms, and can tell where he is, and will ſend Word to Elizabeth Porter, at the Hon. Lady Stanhope's, on the Terras Walk, St. James's, ſhall receive a Guinea Reward, with Thanks.
